2. The notice of appearance shall indicate whether counsel intends to supplement the 1 2 defendant's motion. 3 3. If the defendant does not intend to supplement the motion, the government's response will be due 14 days following counsel's notice of appearance. 4 5 4. If defendant's counsel intends to supplement the defendant's motion, then the notice of appearance shall indicate the date upon which the supplement will be filed and the date upon which the 6 7 government's response shall be due. Such dates should be mutually agreeable to the parties. 8 5. If the parties agree that a hearing is necessary, the notice of appearance shall include the 9 date of the hearing, preferably no earlier than two weeks after the government's response is filed. If the 10 parties are not in agreement that a hearing is necessary, that issue should be addressed in the parties' respective filings. 11 6. 12 Should no counsel enter an appearance on behalf of the defendant, the government will file a response within 14 days of the expiration of the 30-day period referred to above. 13 14 7. Upon review of the motion and response, the Court will determine whether oral argument 15 or hearing will aid its determination of the motion and notify counsel of its decision. 16 Dated: December 3, 2014 BENJAMIN B.
